The background of the entire image is a top-down view of several 'Las Paletas' ice cream sticks. Each stick is a two-layered popsicle, with a bright yellow bottom layer and a vibrant pink top layer. The pink layer is speckled with small, dark seeds, characteristic of dragon fruit. The sticks are scattered across a light-colored surface, surrounded by fresh ingredients: slices of dragon fruit, small yellow cubes of mango, and larger pieces of mango arranged in a decorative pattern. The overall aesthetic is clean, fresh, and appetizing.
